Effective August 2, 1993, E. J. Arnold is named acting president, Loral Librascope, replacing the writer, who will return to Loral Defense Systems-Akron on August 16, 1993.

H. J. Pinczower, vice president, programs, will assume additional responsibilities as acting vice president, engineering.

I know that each of you will lend your full support to Ed and Hank in their new roles.
