

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

AIR RODEO SATURDAY, MAR. 17, 1923 Glendale Airport

Under the Auspices of the Commercial Aircraft Association

Sanctioned by the Aero Club of Southern California

Opening Event.

Grand Formation

Music Furnished by Glendale Elks Band

1. Stunting Exhibition.

Earl S. Daugherty with Canadian Curtiss.

2. Ladies Sportplane Special.

Miss Amelia Earhart flying Kinner Airster
Miss Andree Peyre flying Sport Farman

3. Accurate Landing Contest.

Contestant's mark is T in center of field.

(a) From altitude of 500 ft, motors idling

(b) From altitude of 2000 ft, motor dead

(Entries to be announced)

4. Balloon Strafing.

Airplane in mimic war combat

Catron & Fisk Sportplane piloted by Frank Clarke

5. Parachute Jump.

Miss Gladys Roy will jump 2000 ft from plane.

The Commercial Aircraft Assn.
will furnish Richfield Gasoline exclusively to all airplanes at the field.

Exhibits Open to Public Inspection
S-E-5 Airplane used by Capt. Tait-Cox in his sky-writing exhibition.
THE ARROW. The giant 8-passenger transportation ship built by Rogers Aircraft Inc., Los Angeles, for the Airline Transportation Co. This ship will be placed in daily passenger service between Los Angeles and Imperial Valley points.

KINNER AIRSTER. A sport plane manufactured by the Kinner Aircraft Co., Glendale, Cal.

SPORT FARMAN. French sport plane owned by Miss Andree Peyre

GERMAN FOKKER with 180 h.p. Hiss owned by Victor H. Stahl
ITALIAN BALLILA 220 h.p. flown by Frank Clarke

FRENCH SPAD VII 180 h.p. Hiss owned and flown by Earl S. Daugherty.

LA PERE 400 h.p. Liberty owned by L. C. Brand.

6. Skywriting Exhibition.

Capt. Leslie R. Tait-Cox, master aerial penman, flying S-E-5 airplane at 125 m.p.h. will write "Lucky Strike" 10,000 ft. above the Glendale Airport.

7. Jenny Scramble.

A 5-mile open event for Curtiss J. N. 4 D's (Entries will be announced 10 minutes before Race.)

8. Bullet Drop.

Price Miller will jump from airplane, turn parachute inside out, and fall to within 500 ft. of the ground before opening again.

9. St. Patrick's Day Special.

A 10-mile race of So. California's fastest airplanes.

10. Jenny Relay Race.

3 laps. Entries to be announced.

Added event. If weather conditions are suitable Miss Amelia Earhart, flying her Kinner Airster, will attempt to break the altitude record of 13,200 ft. for plane equipped with 50 H.P. motor.

The Commercial Aircraft Assn.
will furnish Pennzoil Aviation Oil exclusively to all airplanes at the field.

